

Policy title	CAS Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy
Adopted	New
Current version approved by Board of Directors	February 22, 2021 Revised June 10, 2024

This Policy should be read together with the CAS Safe and Welcoming Sport Policy Suite Overview, including the definitions that are set out in the Overview.

1. Purpose

This Policy will:

- a) Promote the benefits, principles and opportunities of equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) within Canada Artistic Swimming and with all partners and stakeholders.
- b) Place athlete, coach, official, staff, and volunteer health and well-being at the forefront of all decisions, thus putting the person first over any outcome.
- c) Encourage individuals of all demographic groups, particularly those of Underrepresented Groups, and all genders, to become involved in the sport of artistic swimming as athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, staff, supporters and spectators.
- d) Create environments that welcome everyone to the sport of artistic swimming. Welcoming environments will help to increase the diversity of individuals and organizations involved in artistic swimming.
- e) Ensure that CAS serves as an example to the sport community, investing in programs that seek to promote, celebrate, and recognize diversity in society overall.

2. Application

- a) This Policy applies to all of the following:
 - o CAS, all PTSOs and Affiliated Organizations, and all Registrants;
 - o Employees and anyone under contract with CAS, a PTSO or an Affiliated Organization and anyone attending the Organization’s offices or other workplaces for work or training-related purposes. This includes all persons working with teams or athletes, including coaches, medical and paramedical personnel and other support persons.
- b) This Policy applies at all times, wherever an Activity or Event takes place, which includes the Organization’s offices as well as external locations in Canada and abroad.
- c) This Policy also applies to conduct outside of the Organization’s Activities or Events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within the Organization and its work and sport environment or is detrimental to the integrity, image or reputation of the Organization. Such applicability will be determined by the Organization at its sole discretion.

3. Principles of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

- a) CAS recognizes that discrimination, prejudice, or harassment based on personal attributes, including race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status or disability, is contrary to human rights principles and will not be tolerated. CAS is fully committed to implementing inclusive rules, policies and practices that ensure all people are able to participate in a safe, open, and welcoming environment in our sport.
- b) Equity is demonstrated by treating people fairly. This is promoted by removing barriers and by the creation of accessible and respectful environments, including any reasonable accommodations required to allow equal opportunities, equal access, and equal benefits to participate so that people can achieve their personal potential in the sport of artistic swimming.
- c) Valuing diversity means respect and appreciation of differences in individuals and in groups and honouring and upholding human rights. It also means valuing various points of view and being open to new and different ideas.
- d) Inclusion ensures that everyone feels welcome, comfortable, and that they belong.

4. CAS Commitments

CAS commits to the following EDI efforts:

- a) Develop a working group tasked to improve and address areas of EDI that are lacking within artistic swimming in Canada;
- b) Conduct an internal audit of CAS and the programs of PTSOs and Affiliated Organizations with an EDI lens;
- c) Conduct an annual review of the CAS rulebook to ensure rules in place for each season will support a culture of inclusion;
- d) Schedule a regular review of CAS registration policies to ensure policies are inclusive;
- e) Develop and maintain a resource bank of education materials of topics related to EDI on the CAS website. The resource bank will be reviewed regularly (at a minimum annually) for new information and broken links;
- f) Ensure registration forms and processes include inclusive language in regard to self-identification;
- g) Consult representatives from under-represented groups when developing programs and policy that will directly affect their participation in the sport of artistic swimming in Canada;
- h) Address concerns of EDI within all educational and promotional materials; and
- i) Share learnings and best practices in equity, diversity and inclusion with PTSOs to strengthen EDI initiatives within Artistic Swimming across the Country.

5. Resolving Issues in Relation to EDI

Should an individual feel they have been subject to, or believe another person has been the victim of, discrimination, bullying, harassment, abuse or sexual harassment, they should take appropriate action through the CAS Discipline and Complaints or other applicable Policy.

- a) Issues may be identified by an individual through personal experience.
- b) Issues may be identified by another individual if they have reasonable evidence that another individual has experienced an EDI issue.
- c) In both cases, it is assured that there will be no reprisals for those making a good faith complaint.

6. Education and Communication

- a) CAS, PTSOs and Affiliated Organizations will ensure this Policy is well publicized, including on Organization websites. Information should be included in all relevant training materials to ensure use.
- b) CAS, PTSOs and Affiliated Organizations will ensure that this Policy is communicated to those who will be responsible for implementing and upholding it.

7. Review

Though CAS has made every effort to use the most up-to-date language to reflect diversity and inclusion, the field is ever changing and the language in this policy may be out of date from time to time. CAS will conduct a review of this Policy as decided by CAS Board. Every time the Policy is reviewed or amended; CAS shall ensure CAS registrant input is considered. This policy will additionally be reviewed as changes in the EDI landscape occur.
