

Getting to the Aquatic Centre

The Active Living Department at the University of Calgary is conveniently located in Calgary's northwest, just north of the Trans-Canada Hwy and just east of Crowchild Trail.

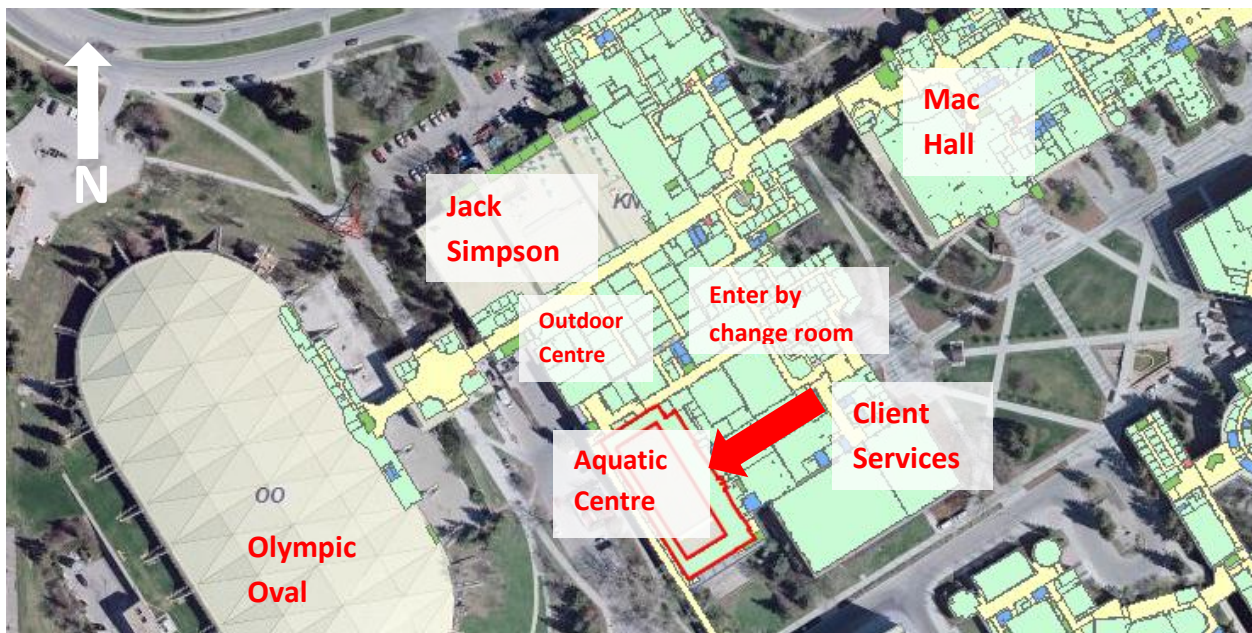

There is ample pay parking on campus. The most accessible parking lot is lot 10, which is just south of 32nd Ave on Collegiate Blvd.

The campus is easily accessible by public transit, including the C-Train and many bus lines.

Bike lockups are also available around the campus, so feel free to opt for an active commute.

This map shows your specific classroom's location. Key landmarks are also noted for your convenience.

For more information about finding us, check the links below. Safe travels!

<http://ucalgary.ca/activeliving/contact-us/location>